All quotations at the foot of each colouring page are from the Authorized (King James) Version. If words have been added into the text for clarity, these have been shown in square brackets. For reasons of brevity, the bubble writing may be abridged or paraphrased from the quotation, perhaps with names added.

Did you know that the first man who ever lived was called Adam, and the first woman was called Eve? God made them and they lived in the Garden of Eden, in perfect peace with lots of animals. God told Adam they could eat any fruit, except the fruit from just one tree. But then Satan, as a snake, lied to Eve and she ate the fruit that God said not to. So did Adam. This was the first sin and it ruined the world. As a result, we now live in a world full of sadness, pain and death.

But as soon as Adam and Eve had sinned, God was kind. He told them that one day a Saviour would be born who would make things right again. This Saviour is Jesus. He has brought hope, forgiving men, women, boys and girls if they are truly sorry for their sin. They will go to Heaven when they die. Heaven will be better than the Garden of Eden!
